GIRLS EMPOWERMENT WORKSHOP

REPORT

The students welfare committee members Dr. Jayshree Suryawanshi madam, Mr. K. K. Patil sir and Dr. S. P. Tripathi sir has introduced us about the workshop. They took the names of the interested girls. The Bhartiya Jain Sanghatana had organised the workshop for all girls. The committee members of Bhartiya Jain Sanghatana, Abhay Sethiya sir and Deepak Chopda sir has introduced us with Sunanda Tated madam who had conducted the session. They started the workshop with the introduction of all girls who were participated in the workshop. The workshop was of 6 days which was started on 21st October till 26th October. During this session of 6 days we came across many different things. Everyday was with different session and its mantra's. On the very first day she introduced us with what actually smart girls means. The first was session was of self awareness in which we came to know many things regarding ourself, the things which we like and the things which we dislike. In the second session which was about self esteem and self defense she told us about how to protect ourselves and to save ourself in any difficult situation. She displayed videos about different techniques of self defense.

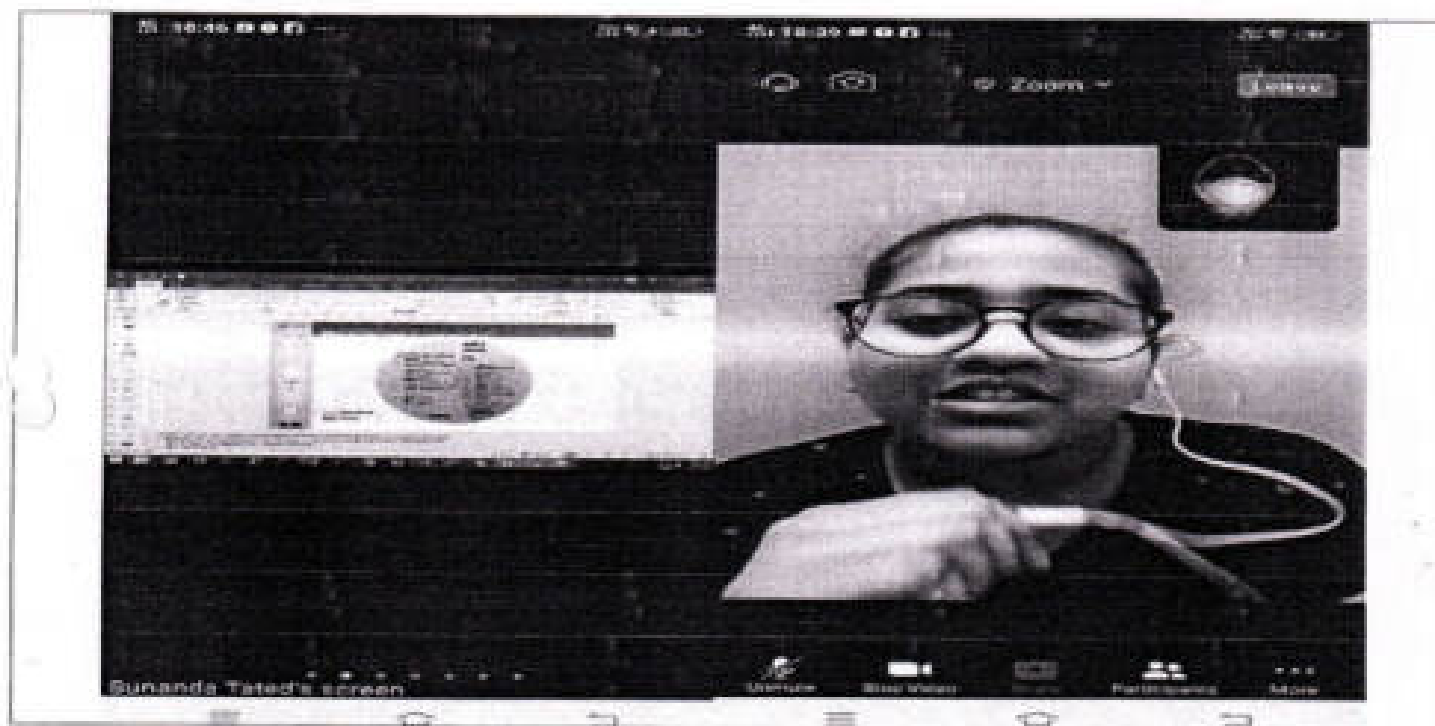

she told us about different incidence and how to tackled with them. In the third session she told us regarding communication and relationships, in which we learnt to communicate with each other effectively. In the fourth session, she explained about friendship and temptatron. The fifth session was of choices and decision in which we learnt to build decision making power so that we could take right decision at right time. In every session there were different mantra's and different stories. Mam thrown light on such things which we couldn't pointed out. We learned to express our thoughts and to belive in ourself. We came across our strength and weakness. The last session was for parents in which she discussed about all this sessions with them in short and this is how the ses'sion ended on 20th october. The session will be very much usefual in future.
