

SNJB'S Smt. K.B. Abad Homoeopathic Medical College Shri R. P. Chordiya Hospital & Bhamashah, Shri V. D. Mehta Dev- Vijay P.G. Institute of Homoeopathy & Research Centre, Chandwad Dist. Nashik – 423101

I BHMS (2022)
[Scheme of Assessment (Formative and Summative)]

Sr.No.	Professional Course	Duration of Professional Course
(1)	(2)	(3)
		First Term	Second Term	Third Term and University exam
		(a)	(b)	(c)
(1)	First Professional Bachelor of Homoeopathic Medicine and Surgery (B.H.M.S.).	First PA and First TT - 1	Second PA and Second TT -2	Third PA PE	First Professional Bachelor of Homoeopathic Medicine and Surgery (B.H.M.S.). Exam (FUE)

General guidelines for examination as per NCH regulation

1) (4) each student shall be required to maintain at least 75 % in theory and 80 % in Practical/Clinics in each subject separately for appearing at examination.

2) (10) It is compulsory for every student to pass with minimum 50 % marks in the internal assessment examination prior to filling the final university examination form of the respective professional year and Head of medical institution shall send the marks of internal assessment and term test to the university prior to final examination of any professional year.

3) (12) To become eligible for joining the Compulsory Rotatory Internship programme, a student must pass all four professional examinations and qualified in six electives and the entire course of Bachelor of Homoeopathic Medicine and Surgery (B.H.M.S.) including internship shall completed within a period of maximum ten years.

4) (13) The theory examination shall have ten percent marks for Multiple Choice Questions (MCQ), forty percent marks for Short Answer Questions (SAQ) and fifty percent marks for Long Explanatory Answer Questions (LAQ) and these questions shall cover the subject widely.

5) (15) the minimum marks required for passing the examination shall be fifty percent, in theory component and fifty percent in practical component including practical, clinical, viva-voice, internal assessment and electives wherever applicable separately in each subject.

6) (16) Electives shall be assessed in terms of attendance and assessment by grading as following, namely a) Grading shall be only for two electives per professional session and mentioned in the certificate obtained by the student after online teaching and assessment.

b) Grading shall be mentioned in the University mark sheet of student.

c) The examination branch of the institution shall compile the grade of electives obtained by student and submit to university through the head of institution so that the University shall add the same to final mark sheet of the student.

d) The student shall have to secure at least 'C' grade (around 50 %) in all the electives in order to pass the Bachelor of Homoeopathic Medicine and Surgery (B.H.M.S.) course.

7) (22) for non-appearance in an examination, a candidate shall not have any liberty for availing additional chance to appear at that examination.

(A) Electives– (b) The Electives shall be conducted as an online programme by the Commission.

- i. Each student from first Professional Bachelor of Homoeopathic Medicine and Surgery (B.H.M.S.) Course shall opt two electives in each academic year.
- ii. The electives shall start from the second term of first Professional Bachelor of Homoeopathic Medicine and Surgery (B.H.M.S.) Course.
- iii. One elective shall be compulsory in each professional year for student and he may select any one elective from the list provided by the Commission for a particular professional year.
- iv. Completion of two electives shall be compulsory for passing the respective academic year.
- v. Each elective may vary in terms of duration of the academic year but shall be available and divided into component of approximately two or more hours and the content or presentation shall be hosted on the online portal of the commission.
- vi. Each component shall comprise an audio-visual component in the form of lecture/demonstration; some suggested reading material/activity and an assessment.
- vii. The student may progress from one component to the next after satisfactorily completing each assessment.
- viii. At the end of each elective, the commission shall issue an elective completion certificate online to the student and the certificate, having the grade. Shall be submitted to the medical institution authority, as proof of completing the electives and it shall be sent to affiliating university.
- ix. The student who fails to complete the electives shall not be allowed to appear in annual university examination.
- x. The commission shall provide a unique number to the student to log in the portal.