(LEAVE)
RULES, 1981

FINANCIAL PUBLICATION OF THE
GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA No. III

First Edition

P R E F A C E

The First Edition of the Bombay Civil Services Rules, 1959, in Volumes I and II, was printed in 1959 after the reorganization of States in 1956. Various developments have taken place since then i.e., the Reorganisation of the Bilingual Bombay State into the two States of Maharashtra and Gujarat as also changes have been made in the Rules through numerous amendments issued from time to time, during the last several years. As a result, a good deal of difficulty was being experienced in practice in understanding and applying these rules properly. The need to have revised and simplified Service Rules was being acutely felt. Government, therefore, has decided to publish the following self-contained subjectwise sets of Services Rules:-

- (1) Maharashtra Civil Services (General Conditions of Services) Rules.
- (2) Maharashtra Civil Services (Pay) Rules.
- (3) Maharashtra Civil Services (Joining Time, Foreign Service and Payments during Suspension, Dismissal and Removal) Rules.
- (4) Maharashtra Civil Services (Leave) Rules.
- (5) Maharashtra Civil Services (Pension) Rules.
- (6) Maharashtra Civil Services (Honoraria, Fees, Compensatory Local and House Rent Allowances) Rules.
- (7) Maharashtra Civil Services (Occupation of Government Residences) Rules.
- (8) Maharashtra Civil Services (Traveling Allowances) Rules.

These sets of rules seek to codify the provisions of existing rules in the Bombay Civil Services Rules subjectwise and the various orders issued by Government with such rewording as have become necessary to put them in the form of statutory rules.

2. The first four sets of rules {S. Nos. (1) to (4)} have been framed by the Governor of Maharashtra under proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India. These rules which have been issued under Government Notification, Finance Department, No. MSC-1081/4/MCSR-Cell, dated the 23rd July, 1981, come into force with effect from the 15th August 1981. The remaining sets of rules will be issued later on.

3. To make each set of rules as self-contained as possible, the relevant delegation of powers, Appendices and the relevant forms pertaining to a particular subject, have also been included therein.

4. This set of rules pertains to admissibility of leave to employees of the Maharashtra government. The Marathi version will be published separately.

5. For facility of reference a comparative table has been appended to this set of rules at the end indicating the numbers of these rules and the corresponding provisions of the Bombay Civil Services Rules,1959. The table also indicates the provisions of the Bombay Civil Services Rules,1959, which have been deleted from this set of rules.

6. Omission or inaccuracies, if any, in this set of rules, may please be brought to the notice of the Finance department.

(1) Save as otherwise provided in these rules, these rules shall apply to all Government servants whose conditions of service the Government of Maharashtra are competent to prescribe.

Note 1.--The amount of leave to Government servants of the former States of States of Saurashtra, Kutch, Madhya Pradesh and Hyderabad allocated to the State of Bombay who have opted to be governed by the rules of the former States applicable to them before the 1st November 1956, in accordance with Government Resolution, Finance Department, No. INT-1056-S-8, dated the 7th January 1957, as modified from time to time, shall be governed by those rules.

Note 2.--The option for leave rules exercised by the Government servants of the former States of Saurashtra, Kutch, Madhya Pradesh and Hyderabad allocated to the State of Bombay covers also three types of leave, viz., Special Disability Leave, Maternity Leave and Hospital Leave and also the Pilgrimage Leave in the case of the allocated Government servants from the former State of Hyderabad only, admissible under Article 180-A, Appendix XXI, Volume II of the Hyderabad

Note 3.--Persons transferred to Government service from a Local Fund which is not administered by Government will be treated as joining a first post under Government and their previous service shall not count as service performed under Government. Government may, however, allow previous service in such cases to count as service performed on such terms as it thinks fit.

(2) Unless it be otherwise provided in these rules, a permanent Government servant to whom these rules do not apply.

(a) When transferred temporarily to a service or post to which these rules apply, shall remain subject to the leave rules which were applicable to him before such transfer; and

(b) When appointed substantively to a permanent post to which these rules apply, shall become subject to these rules from the date of such appointment in which case the leave at his credit under the rules previously applicable to him shall be carried forward subject to the maximum limits of accumulation as laid down in rule 50. The leave so carried forward shall first be exhausted before the leave earned under the rules is availed of. The leave salary in respect of the leave carried forward shall be borne by the Government from which the Government servant is transferred.

3. Right to interpret

Government reserve to themselves the right of interpreting these rules.

4. Power of relaxation

Where Government is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules causes or is likely to cause undue hardship in the case of any Government servant or class of Government servants, it may, by an order in writing, exempt any such Government servant or class of Government servants from any provisions of these rules or may direct that such provisions shall apply to such Government servants or class of Government servants with such modifications not affecting the substance thereof as may be specified in such order.

No powers may be exercised or delegated under these rules except after consultation with the Finance Department. It shall be open to that Department to prescribe, by general or special order, cases in which its consent may be presumed to have been given.

Note.--For powers delegated under these rules see Appendix I.

8. Reasons for concessions to be communicated to Audit Officer

When a competent authority, other than Government, communicates to the Audit Officer an order granting any concessions under these rules to any Government servant in cases in which it is prescribed that the reasons therefore should be recorded, he should at the same time forward to him a copy of his reasons.

CHAPTER II-DEFINITIONS

[The definitions given below are reproduced from Chapter II of the Maharashtra Civil Services (General Conditions of Services) Rules, 1981 and are only those definitions which are relevant for the purpose of the subject-matter contained in this set of rules.]

9. Unless the context otherwise requires, the terms defined in this chapter are used in the various sets of the Maharashtra Civil Services Rules, in the sense here explained :-

(20) A Gazetted Government servant is one who is a member of an All India or State Service or a person appointed in accordance with the terms of a contract or agreement and whose appointment is gazetted by Government. Members of the Subordinate Civil Services, whose appointments are gazetted by Heads of Departments are Non-gazetted Government servants. Notifications investing Government servants with powers under different Acts, in order that the Courts may take judicial cognizance of them, do not constitute the persons invested with such powers as Gazetted Government servants within the meaning of this sub-rule.

Exception.-Officers whose appointments to Class II services or posts are made by the Heads of Departments or Heads of Offices subordinate to them and are not published in the Gazette should be treated as Gazetted Government servants.

(21) Government, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,, as respects anything done or to be done after the commencement of the Constitution, shall mean the Governor of Maharashtra.

Instruction.--Calculations of period expressed in terms of months and days should be made as under:-

(a) To calculate 3 months and 20 days on and from the 25th January, the following method should be adopted:-

	Y.	m.	d.
25th January to 31st January	0.	0.	7
February to April	0.	3.	0
1st May to 13th May	0.	0.	13

	0.	3.	20

(b) The period commencing on 30th January, and ending with 2nd March should be deemed as 1 month and 4 days, as indicated below:--

	Y.	m.	d.
30th January to 31st January	0.	0.	2
February	0.	1.	0
1st March to 2nd March	0.	0.	2

	0.	1.	4

(35) Officiate. A Government servant officiates in a post when he performs the duties of a post on which another person holds a lien. A competent authority may, if it thinks fit, appoint a Government servant to officiate in a vacant post on which no other Government servant holds a lien.

(36) Pay means the amount drawn monthly by a Government servant as-

(i) the pay (including special dearness pay) which has been sanctioned for a post held by him substantively or in an officiating capacity, or to which he is entitled by reason of his position in a cadre; and

(ii) personal pay, and special pay; and

(iii) any other emoluments which may be specially classed as pay by Government.

(40) Permanent post means a post carrying a definite rate of pay sanctioned without limit of time.

(41) Personal pay additional pay granted to a Government servant -

(a) To save him from a loss of substantive pay in respect of a permanent post other than a tenure post due to a revision of pay or due to any reduction of such substantive pay otherwise than as a disciplinary measure; or

(b) in exceptional circumstances, on other personal considerations.

(42) Presumptive pay of a post, when used with reference to any particular Government servant, means the pay to which he would be entitled if he held the said post and were performing its duties; but it does not include special pay unless the Government servant performs or discharges the work or responsibility, in consideration of which special pay was sanctioned.

(43) Probationer means a Government servant employed on probation in or against a substantive or temporary vacancy in the cadre of a department.

Note 1.--No person appointed substantively to a permanent post in a cadre is a probationer, unless definite conditions of probation have been attached to his appointment, such as the condition that he must remain on probation pending the passing of certain examination.

Note 2.--A Government servant (other than one who holds substantively a permanent post) appointed on promotion to a temporary post will be for all purposes as a temporary Government servant.

Note 3.--The status of a probationer is to be considered as having the attributes of a substantive status except where the rules prescribe otherwise.

(46) Registered medical practitioner means a medical practitioner registered under the Maharashtra Medical Council Act. LXVI of 1965, or the Maharashtra Medical Practitioners Act, XXVIII OF 1961, or a practitioner registered under Part A or Part B of the Register maintained under the Maharashtra Homeopathic and Biochemic Practitioners Act, XII of 1960, or any other law corresponding thereto and in force in the State of Maharashtra, or the respective Medical Registration Acts of the several State Governments.

(48) Special pay means an addition, of the nature of pay, to the emoluments of a post or of a Government servant granted in consideration of -

- (a) the specially arduous nature of the duties;
- (b) a specific addition to the work or responsibility.

(51) Substantive pay means the pay other than special pay, personal pay or emoluments classed as pay by Government under sub-rule 36 (iii) to which a Government servant is entitled on account of post to which he has been appointed substantively or by reasons of his substantive position in a cadre.

(53) Temporary post means a post carrying a definite rate of pay sanctioned for a limited time.

Note.--Substantive appointments to temporary posts should be made in a limited number of cases only, as for example, when posts are, to all intents and purposes, quasi-permanent or when they have been sanctioned for a period of not less than, or there is reason to believe that they will not terminate within a period of three years. In all other cases, appointments in temporary posts should be made in an officiating capacity only.

Instruction.--The benefit of substantive appointments to temporary posts contemplated in the above note should not be allowed to be enjoyed by more than one person simultaneously. Therefore, where a Government servant has already been appointed substantively to a temporary post and there is a temporary interruption in his tenure of the post, it would not be proper to appoint another Government servant substantively to the post during such temporary interruption. For this purpose, interruptions which are likely to last for less than 3 years may be treated as temporary. It follows, therefore, that where a Government servant is already appointed substantively to a temporary post, a second Government servant should not be appointed substantively to it unless the previous holder of the post has been transferred from it permanently or unless he has been transferred temporarily and there is reason to believe that he will remain absent from the post for a period of not less than three years.

(54) Tenure post means a permanent post which an individual Government servant may not hold, for more than a limited period without reappointment.

Note.--The following posts in State and Class I services have been declared by Government to be tenure posts :--

	1	Period	of
	Tenure		(Years)
(1) Under Secretary to Government (when held by persons other than those promoted from the Subordinate Secretariat Service).			3
(2) Deputy Secretary (Criminal Law) in the Law & Judiciary Department.			5
(3) Solicitor (Mofussil Litigation)
(4) Three posts of Assistant Directors of Social Welfare..	3

(56) Transfer means the movement of a Government servant from one headquarter station in which he is employed to another such station, either-

- (a) to take up the duties of a new post; or
- (b) in consequence of a change of his headquarters.

(57) Transit time means the actual time required to reach the destination of tour from the headquarters or from one outstation to another outstation by the ordinary mode of travel.

CHAPTER III-GENERAL CONDITIONS

10. Right to leave

(1) Leave is permission granted by a competent authority at its discretion to remain absent from duty.

(2) Leave cannot be claimed as of right.

(3) when the exigencies of public service so require, leave of any kind may be refused or revoked by the authority competent to grant it, but it shall not be open to that authority to alter the kind of leave due and applied for except at the written request of the Government servant.

11. Considerations for sanctioning of leave on application

Where all applications for leave cannot in the interest of public service be granted, an authority competent to grant leave should in deciding which application should be granted take into account the following considerations:-

(a) the Government servant who can for the time being best be spared.

(b) the amount of leave due to the various applicants.

(c) the amount and character of the service rendered by each applicant since he last returned from leave.

(d) the fact that any such applicant was compulsorily re-called from his last leave.

(e) the fact that any such applicant has been refused leave in the public interest.

12. Grant of leave should not unduly deplete cadre

Leave should not be granted to an extent which would deplete the strength of a service or Department available for duty below the essential minimum.

13. Duties of Government servant absent on leave to be discharged by another Government servant ordinarily from same station or district.

As a general rule, the duties of a Government servant absent on leave for a period not exceeding 120 days should be discharged by another Government servant in the same station or district. Only in exceptional cases, where there is no Government servant available on the spot, the transfer of a Government servant from another station or district to officiate in consequence of a Government servant being on leave, not exceeding 120 days can be allowed. In the case of posts held by members of the All India Services, if a member of that service is not available on the spot, a State Officers should be placed in charge of the vacant post.

14. Commutation of one kind of leave into another

(1) At the request of a Government servant, the authority which granted him leave may commute it retrospectively into leave of a different kind which was due and admissible to him at their time the leave was granted, but the Government servant cannot claim such commutation as a matter of right.

(2) The commutation of one kind of leave into another shall be subject to adjustment of leave salary on the basis of leave finally granted to the Government servant, that is to say, any amount paid to him in excess shall be recovered or any arrears due to him shall be paid.

Note.--Extraordinary leave granted on medical certificate or otherwise may be commuted retrospectively into leave not due subject to the provisions of rule 62.

15. Combination of different kinds of leave

Except as otherwise provided in these rules, any kind of leave under these rules may be granted in combination with or in continuation of any other kind of leave.

Explanation.--Casual leave which is not recognized as leave under these rules shall not be combined with any other kind of leave admissible under these rules.

16. Maximum amount of continuous leave

Unless Government in view of the exceptional circumstances of the case otherwise determines, no Government servant shall be granted leave of any kind for a continuous period exceeding five years.

17 Formal joining of duty at the end of leave with the intention of taking leave again permitted.

Formal joining of duty at the end of leave with the intention of taking leave again permitted. The principle on which the requirements of this rule should be enforced is that no deliberate or intentional evasion of the rule should be permitted; but so long as this condition is satisfied, it is left to the discretion of the authority competent to grant the leave, to grant or refuse it, as may seem proper in each case.

18. Application of rules while on temporary transfer to other Government or on foreign service

(1) Government servants to whom these rules apply shall continue to be governed by these rules while on temporary transfer to the Central Government or any other State Government or while on foreign service within India.

(2) A Government servant in foreign service in India should submit his application for leave for a period not exceeding 120 days to his employer through the Audit Officer concerned. If the period is in excess of 120 days, he should submit the application through his employer to the authority, competent to grant the leave along with the Audit Officer's report thereon.

(3) A Government servant in foreign service in India may be granted by his employer leave for a period not exceeding 120 days, provided that it is certified by the Audit Officer to be admissible. Leave of longer duration may be granted by the authority which sanctions the transfer.

(4) In the case of Government servants on foreign service outside India (including service with U.N. agencies within or outside India) or on temporary transfer to the Armed Forces of the Union, these rules shall apply only to the extent provided in the terms and conditions of foreign service or temporary transfer, as the case may be.

19. Admissibility of leave while in foreign service to be certified by Audit Officer

In the case of a Government servant on foreign service leave should not be sanctioned until the Audit Officer who is responsible for the recovery of the leave and pension contributions has certified the amount of leave and the leave salary admissible.

20. Acceptance of service or employment while on leave

(1) A Government servant (other than a Government servant who has been permitted a limited amount of private practice or who has been permitted to undertake casual literary work or service as an examiner or similar employment) while on leave (including leave preparatory to retirement or leave granted beyond the date of retirement or quitting service) shall not take up any service or employment elsewhere, including the setting up of a private professional practice as Accountant, Consultant or Legal or Medical Practitioner, without obtaining the previous sanction of-

(a) Government if the proposed service or employment lies elsewhere than in India; or

(b) the authority empowered to appoint him, if the proposed service or employment lies in India.

(2) (a) No Government servant while on leave, other than leave preparatory to retirement or leave granted beyond the date of retirement, shall ordinarily be permitted to take up any other service or employment.

(b) If grant of such permission is considered desirable in any exceptional case, the Government servant may have his services transferred temporarily from his parent office to the office in which he is permitted to take up service or employment or may be required to resign his appointment before taking up any other service or employment.

(3) (a) In case a Government servant who has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement is required, before the date of compulsory retirement, for employment during such leave in any post under the State Government in or outside India and is agreeable to return to duty, the unexpired portion of the leave from the date of rejoining shall be cancelled.

(b) The leave so cancelled under clause (a) shall be treated as leave refused and subject to the provisions of rule 67 it may be granted from the date of compulsory retirement of the Government servant.

(c) Such recall to duty before expiry of leave shall be treated as optional for the purpose of rule 46.

(d) No leave shall be earned in respect of any period of employment during leave preparatory to retirement.

(e) In case a Government servant is employed in any post under the Government of Maharashtra while he is on leave referred to in rule 67 he may continue to enjoy his leave concurrently with such employment, but his leave salary which may be drawn in addition to pay of the post in which he is employed will be restricted to the amount leave salary admissible in respect of leave on half pay. During such employment he may be granted dearness allowance and compensatory allowance, if any admissible on the basis of pay. These allowances will neither be admissible on leave salary nor will the leave salary be taken into account in calculating these allowances.
