Questions:

1. The lecturers were clear and easy to understand
2. The teaching aids were effectively used
3. The course material handed out was adequate
4. Were the objectives of the course met
5. Please give overall rating of the course

Action Taken Report:

1. Refinement of Lecture Sequence:

- o Feedback: The lecture sequence received high ratings, but there was a slight variation in student responses, with a small percentage rating it as 'Good.'
- o Action: A more detailed review of the lecture sequence will be conducted to identify areas where the flow of content could be further optimized. This may include reorganizing certain topics for better coherence or integrating more transitional elements between lectures to ensure a seamless learning experience.

2. Increased Focus on Case Studies and Practical Examples:

- o Feedback: While the majority of students rated the use of examples and case studies as 'Excellent,' there was a slight indication that this aspect could be strengthened.
- o Action: Additional real-world case studies and practical examples will be integrated into the course content. Collaborations with industry professionals may be sought to provide students with contemporary examples that align with current trends in pharmacology.

3. Expanded Course Material and Resources:

- o Feedback: Although the course material was rated highly, with the majority of students marking it as 'Excellent,' there was a minor suggestion that it could be more comprehensive.
- o Action: The course material will be expanded to include supplementary reading lists, additional reference articles, and optional online resources. This will give students more opportunities to deepen their understanding of the subject matter and explore areas of particular interest in greater detail.

3. The course material handed out was adequate
4. Were the objectives of the course met
5. Please give overall rating of the course

Action Taken Report:

1. Enhancement of Teaching Aids:

- o Feedback: While the majority of students rated the teaching aids as 'Excellent,' there was a slight drop in this rating compared to other aspects of the course.
- o Action: To further improve student engagement and understanding, additional multimedia resources, such as animations and interactive simulations, will be incorporated into the lectures. This will enhance the effectiveness of the teaching aids and cater to diverse learning preferences.

2. Continuous Improvement of Course Content:

- o Feedback: The course received overwhelmingly positive feedback regarding content and delivery, but a small number of students rated some aspects as 'Good' instead of 'Excellent.'
- o Action: To maintain and improve the high standards of the course, periodic reviews of the course material will be conducted. This will include updating case studies and examples with the latest research and practices in pharmacology to ensure that the course remains relevant and cutting-edge.
